Series Of Burglaries Plague Bay Policemen

The latest of a series of burglaries which have plagued Bay St. Louis police for a week took place Monday night when the Farmers CO-Op Highway 50 was entered. Pay checks, War Bonds, and numerous small articles were taken. Entrance was made by breaking out the glass in a rear door of the building.

On the same date between noon and 4:00 p.m. daytimers entered the dwelling at 836 Bay St. Louis through a bathroom window and took a color TV console.

Nighttimers made an unsuccessful attempt to take a color TV console from a car at Bay St. Louis while the owner was attending the basketball tournament.

Bay Merchant Dies Monday

Benjamin Francis (Ben) Hille Sr., 53, a native of New Orleans and a resident of Bay St. Louis for almost 50 years, died at 9:30 p.m., Monday, January 26, in Hancock General Hospital.

U.S. District Judge Dan M. Russell Jr. has approved the proposed re-districting plan for Hancock County and directed the Hancock County Board of Supervisors to put the redistricting plan into effect "with deliberate speed as soon as possible."

The court had rejected a plan filed March 21, 1968, and a later alternate for failure of the plans to meet Constitutional requirements as to proportional population in the respective wards, as construed by the U.S. Supreme Court.

"WE CARE" Application Forms Now Available

The Hancock County "We Care" committee at its first meeting drew up an application form for applying for the funds made available to the county. These forms are now available at churches and grocery stores.

The committee wants to emphasize that the $77,000 sum is to be distributed in Hancock County outside of the city limits of Bay St. Louis and Waveland. Those two cities have received their own "We Care" funds.

The committee members from Boat One are: Rev. Samuel Burton, Pearl Harbor, and Mrs. Margaret Carver, General Delivery, Pearl Harbor.

School Board Plans Waveland Building

The Bay St. Louis municipal school district has been awarded $35,187.35 for hurricane damage, according to information received by Congressman William Colmer from Washington's Health, Education and Welfare Department.

term notes without increasing property taxes since there is currently a 2 mill tax levy on property assessment as a result of the school system.

Superintendent McCullough said if any good thing came out of the blow, it was the timing of the blow. Happening as it did August 17 not all faculty members had been signed up and ample teachers were already available for the enrollment which dwindled when many homes were destroyed.

Rebels Top Tourney Play

Boys' teams and eight teams were entered in the Bay High Invitational Basketball Tournament last week at Bay High Gymnasium. In the final game, the Rebels of Harrison Central defeated the Hawks of Hancock North 78-69 in the boys' final. The Red Rebelettes came behind in the second half when Pass Christian Lady won 38-26.

Victors of the St. Stanislaus-A-Chavs, the defending champions, came early in the tournament from a loss in the first game.

Bay High Tigers lasted longer but dropped out in the second half to the Rebels by the Red Rebelettes.

Bay basketball fans turned up the tournament with a capacity crowd Friday night when all stands were taken.

Sound basketball was played all through the tournament highlighted by the Hancock North Central boys overwin in the semi-finals of the Notre Dame Rebels.

Team were Curtis St. Stanislaus; Ricky Hancock North Central; Shaw, Hancock North Central; and Donnie Caldwell, Bay.

Team for the Girl's All Star Team were Mary and Peggy Haas of Hancock North Central; Gennie and Noel Phillips, Bay.

Monday, January 20th, Stanislaus played Bay Jr. school two games of basketball at St. Stanislaus gym. First game, played by the seniors, kept the spectators on their feet. With only 21 seconds left to play and Bay leading 34-29 George Cross, Stanislaus, 12 seconds left, scored 3 points and tied the game. Taking his shot and scoring another 3, Stanislaus leads 35-29. On the last second a 11-foot shot and 2 minutes more to go to the game. Tigers shot and the Rocks get a shot. The game ended, 35-30, Rocks chavs 35.

The second game, also won by the Tigers, was played by 8th graders. Bay Jr. beat Stanislaus 40-29.

NEW FAD

new fad at Bay Jr. for the winter days has been started. On a cold day you will see a lot of students wearing "Bronson" caps. Not only Bronson caps warm but are looking too, and every one is different. Layna Wendling, Colleen McCaleb wears orange and black striped cap. John Allen has his cap colored that you can see across campus. Other boys have solid colors and stripes are going around.

Gulf Park College

Schedules Ballet

The general public is invited to attend the Russian-American musical extravaganza to be held in the Main Hardy Hall Auditorium on Gulf Park College campus, Long Beach on January 27 with 8:00 p.m. as curtain time.

The ballet is based on The Firebird Suite which was composed in 1910 by the contemporary Russian-American musical giant, Igor Stravinsky. In prologue and four episodes, the ballet will be presented exactly as conceived and choreographed.

The Russian folk tale relates the basic conflict between Good and Evil. Goodness represented by the multicolored, iridescent Firebird, and Evil personified by the ogre, Kashchei, whose soul is encased in a large egg.

Because of the intensity of this brief marionette mini-drama, late comers will not be seated until the conclusion of this particular selection which Daniel Lioris has programmed as the opening event of the concert.

Three around-the-world tours have the puppets for people who don't like puppets as a "reward to the eye, ear and the intellect."

While the performance is for adult audience primarily, it is also recommended for high school groups interested in puppets, ballet, and choreography.

Dental Week Plans Given

Mrs. Lewis Alexander, Bay Beach, vice president of the Dental Auxiliary, 5th District Dental Society outlined plans for the groups participation in National Dental Health Week, Feb. 1-7, during a meeting held last Thursday at Mary Mahoney's Restaurant, Biloxi.

The financial report was given by Mrs. William Murdoch, secretary-treasurer. In other business, Mrs. C. H. Allen, Bay Beach, chairman, National Women's Auxiliary to the American Dental Association, Embellishment Committee, appointed Mrs. John Hancock to serve on the committee.

CYO Elects President

Chuck Benvenuti was elected president of Our Lady of the Gulf Senior CYO at Monday night's meeting.

Others named to office were Chris Lagarde, vice president; Kathy Blaise, secretary; and Melissa Lagarde, treasurer. Committee chairman will be named at a later date.

The new slate will be installed at a youth mass at 11:30 a.m. Sunday.

L-B Jaycees Cite Outstanding Man

A faculty member of Quaries Elementary School, Long Beach, Lester Denley, was selected to receive the Long Beach Jaycees' Distinguished Service Award. The announcement was made at the Jaycees' DSA banquet held at the Downtown Motel Restaurant in Gulfport Saturday night.

Denley was cited for his dedicated service rendered in the community in the form of work with various youth groups, and outstanding assistance following hurricane Camille.

He is treasurer of the Long Beach Jaycees and a member of the National Education Association and the Mississippi Educational Association.

Frank Dunaway, Mississippi State Jaycee president, was guest speaker at the banquet. He urged the Jaycees to meet the challenges of current problems in the communities.

Jaycee of the Month awards were presented to Bob Collie, July; Sam Brown, August; Dave Bruner, September; Lester Denley, October; Don Ross, November; and Henry D'Aquila, December.

Ed Pope, DSA banquet chairman, served as master of ceremonies.

Police Enforce Minors' Curfew

"Some people misinterpret the enforcement of the curfew for persons under 18," said Robert Goodell, Chief of Police. "They think it is just police power being used. It is actually a City Ordinance adopted October 1, 1965, and is an apparent violation of a like ordinance adopted August 8, 1937."

The ordinance is as follows: Sec. 17-5. Curfew for minors.

It shall be unlawful for any minor under the age of eighteen (18) years to be on the streets of the city or at any public place, park or place of amusement for any parent or any legal guardian of said minor to allow such minor to attend such public places, parks or places of amusement or to be on the streets of the city after the hour of eleven (11:00) p.m. and before the hour of six (6:00) a.m., unless such minor is accompanied by a parent, a legal guardian, or a police officer.

Mr. Baxter is a charter member of the Commission, having served since its official activation in 1965, including three full successive terms as Treasurer. He is also currently serving as Chairman of the Hancock County Planning Commission.

Fred Wagner, Bay St. Louis architect, was elected to a second term as Treasurer. Mr. Wagner served as an advisory member from 1966 until his appointment to a voting member in 1969. He also served as a member of the Bay St. Louis Planning Commission.

Jon Bonnett, of Pascagoula, was elected Vice Chairman. Mr. Bonnett served concurrently as Chairman of the City Planning Commission in Pascagoula and of the Jackson County Planning Commission, and was first appointed to the Regional Commission in 1967.

In other business, the Commission heard a request from M. James Stevens, representing the Coast Chapter of the Mississippi Restaurant Association, for assistance in securing the removal or rephrasing of warning signs presently posted on U.S. 90 in Alabama and Louisiana, contending that the signs are doing irreparable harm to the tourism industry. The Commission authorized the Executive Director to contact Southern District Highway Commissioner Pyron and seek to arrange a conference to resolve the issue.

The ad hoc Codas Committee, under the chairmanship of Milton B. E. Hill, architect-engineer of Gulfport, was directed to convene and report back to the Commission in February on proposed revisions to the Uniform Building Code as formulated and presented by the Governor's Emergency Council.

Carnivals Planned For Gulf Coast

By Joe Pilet

The populace of the Mississippi Gulf Coast will soon be seeing GOLD! Gold, Purple, Green. These are the colors of the Carnival, adopted by one of his Royal Highnesses, King, possibly in the year 1872. The colors, of course, have meaning as do the stones used in the Royal Costumes. Gold is symbolic of power; Purple for justice and Green for faith. The stone called amethyst is for sincerity, topaz for loyalty and Emerald for love.

Mardi Gras -- always on Tuesday. This year's date for the movable holiday is February 10 and up to the year 2000. Mardi Gras will not again fall on this date. It did, however, in 1807, 1880, 1948 and 1954. Last February 10 Mardi Gras have been spectacular! Advance preparations now underway assure another season of care-free cavorting.

The people of Mississippi are unique in their ability to adapt. They are also the most formative of the first water, and for safety bet that Mardi Gras in Mississippi will be different. It will be dashing. It will be delightful. And whether you are "in it" or "view it" you'll be glad you came to the Mardi Gras.

To know something of the customs, the traditions, and the novations practiced by various Mississippi Carnival Organizations is to savor more fully the fun -- the absolutely urgent need to be gay -- to mix and mingle, to laugh and clown, to hide your identity, perhaps in the guise of a King or a Queen, or a Ho-bo or a Horbese, or a New cifer or cat. The need for gaiety is not new. Having the spirit of mass-participation goes back to Roman and Greek customs and even to primitive peoples. Since the Catholic faith of modern times forbids the eating of flesh during the season of lent, there is a misconception in the minds of many that Mardi Gras is, in deed, a Catholic holiday. The feast-day "Fat Tuesday" or "Boeuf Gras" stems from a King Christian era of the time-Saturnalia and Lupercalia, a sense Mississippi's carnival is Catholic. Catholic in the sense of the word meaning all-inclusive and of general interest. For certainly everyone is "commanded" to come to the Mardi Gras. Age is no barrier. Babies in arm cars are bunched. Bald-headed Grandpas and long-haired non-conformists will participate. Fat mammas wear

MONTE CARLO IS THE CHOICE OF THE JAMES T. WARD FAMILY. SALE WAS HANDLED BY LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN HERB BARON.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Ward of Bay St. Louis checked out four or five dealers and decided that the Monte Carlo was the finest of the 1970 cars. The Wards bought their car from Herb Baron at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet, so they went back to see him, knowing that he would give them the best deal. Even the supply of this fine Chevrolet is limited because of the big demand but Herb got the Wards exactly like they wanted. Looking for a special Chevrolet, visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and ask for Herb Baron. He will get just the type you want and with what you want on. He could save you many dollars.

KANTCHA KETCHUM
By A. L. (Doc) Elliott

Fishing for the past week has been lousy. Extreme cold, biting winds and tides too low. A few speckles were caught in the pipe line canal down by La Frances Camp on Campbell's Bay.

Green trout fishing has been panned. Caught a couple of perch by accident. With the weather warming up, things should improve. Gave me the good old summer time.

Hunting has been fair. Some woodcock are being killed according to Harry Roman, an ornithologist. Harry has also been getting a few quail. He has three bird dogs with cat feet, probably caused by the routine of Camille, broken glass, etc.

Another quail and dove hunter is Dr. Wm. Bolos of New Orleans. His summer home is at the Kila. Doc has been getting a few quail, he said.

Enjoyed a chicken supper and birthday party given for Louisa Carver at the Stringing Door Lounge on Bayou La Croix Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Carver own the lounge. Hank Krucor did the cooking and a good time was had by all.

Louis and Lehto who operate the L&L Flooring Co. are now coming to our section. Both fish and hunt and will do both sports when not working.

Troy Smith and Whitney Carvin were catching some species in the pipe line canal last Wednesday. One day last week Carvin caught 9 speckles that weighed 28 pounds. They were beautiful he said.

Clois Dodson said he is going back to fishing soon. Clois loves fly fishing and has caught his share of fish up Bayou La Croix especially in Bayous Phillips and Moran.

It's good to hear a fellow say, I'm getting up there in age but I still do my fishing. Jerome Carver is one of these fellows. He has fished and hunted all his life and is one of the best at fly fishing. We still have a lot of time left Jerome, to enjoy our favorite sports.

Kinda early but spring time fishing is best. The majority of now-a-days do mostly fly rod fishing and casting. But the old way of catching fish on a porch pole and wading the banks, like Sam Moyore, is still fascinating and exciting. You can catch your own live bait, earth worms, crickets, grasshoppers, crayfish, small frogs, minnows and grasshoppers. Bass and perch go for any kind of live bait and our streams are loaded with fresh water fish waiting to be caught. Give it a try. You'll have fun, too.

Eido Dopros says the only thing he is getting now is some oysters. Oysters are good eating buddy, what are you waiting for. A good oyster try in hand to boat.

A reminder to all non-rod-doms working in this area. You must have a non-rod-doms license to fish in local waters. It's cheaper to purchase a license than pay a fine.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK
Gono Louder is a fisherman from way back. Catching flounders is his specialty. Gono owns and operates the Bayou La Croix Marina which was badly damaged by Camille. He plans to rebuild as soon as possible. It will make a lot of fishermen very happy.

Tony Enterante, Sr., and Morris Daniels visited the Bay Sunday. Time too short to go fishing but they will return.

John Genin and John Scaffide, Jr., are at home for awhile. Their plans are to work and enjoy some fishing and golf.

Did you know that: Liquor and women, fun and laughter, are at home for awhile.

Was glad to see Bob Shooly and brother Clayton. Bob enjoys his fishing and is bringing his boat over when the weather straightens out. A few years ago Bob was a professional welder.

For the old timers: Visited Pine Hills Golf Course which is now grown up in bushes, trees and weeds. Like myself who played the course years ago were Bob Genin, Sr., C.C. McDonald, Sr., Fred Wright, Oscar Bragg, Sr., Bob Mitchell, Dad and O. J. Dodson, Albert Hix, Cy Engman, Bill Wolla, Vic Wollat, Mori Noenico, Jee Bular, Sonator Pat Harrison, Congressman Paul Maloney, Bill Colmer, and many others. Some of the above are now playing golf at the Pass Christian Lakes Golf Course. Even though the course is gone and some of our buddies, memories still remain of the great times had by a bunch of real sports in by gone days.

It's good to know that Capt. Jack Haley is doing O.K. and should be home from the hospital soon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Lott of Farmington, Miss., had been hearing about all the good deals offered at Lester-John Chevrolet, so when they decided they were ready to buy a new pickup they drove there a visit. At Lester-John Chevrolet they talked to longtime salesman Fritz Parashak, he gave them a line of deal that they were looking for so they gave a nice down. Jerry Lott said they had been told to buy a new pickup about that time and they had looked into it before. When they got home they called on Lester-John Chevrolet, Mr. and Mrs. Lott went to see salesman Fritz-John Chevrolet and Fritz Parashak to all of their friends thinking about buying a new car, he could save you money there.
